RE: Fastest Growing Private Companies Awards

Dear Ram,

The Los Angeles Business Journal is pleased to congratulate you on being named one of the Fastest Growing Private Companies in Los Angeles.

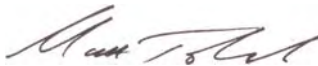

Each week, the Los Angeles Business Journal examines the many ways that the Los Angeles economy operates. The Fastest Growing Private Companies list is generated annually by evaluating the privately held companies headquartered in Los Angeles County. All companies that qualified for the 2008 list had annual revenue of at least $5 million in 2007, and are listed by percentage growth in revenue from the years 2005 to 2007.

NorthStar Moving Corp. was honored at our annual Fastest Growing Private Event on November 11, 2008 and featured in the Journal the week of November 17, 2008. As you may know, the Los Angeles Business Journal hosted a private event at the Walt Disney Concert Hall to honor all 100 companies. We were delighted to congratulate NorthStar Moving Corp. as #57 on the list. Based on figures submitted by your offices, NorthStar Moving Corp. had growth revenue of 94.7% from the years of 2005 - 2007!

We greatly enjoyed this opportunity to recognize your accomplishments. Please find enclosed a copy of the Los Angeles Business Journal with your featured listing and a special certificate for your achievement.

Thank you again for your participation and we wish you continued success in 2009!

Best regards,

Matthew Toledo
